

MONTANA JUDGE, POINDEXTER, IS HIGHLY LAUDED

Reports of Jurist Named for Hawaii Federal Bench Are Commendatory

That J. B. Poindexter of Montana, nominated by the president as a federal judge in Hawaii, is an able lawyer, an experienced and capable judge and a citizen of public-spirited activity is information which has come from former residents of the territory who know something of the Montana man's record.

The Butte Daily Post gives the following sketch of his life:

Judge Poindexter has spent the greater part of his life in Montana. Coming to this state from Oregon, his parents, California pioneers, settled at Dillon when Judge Poindexter was but 12 years of age. He received his common school and high school education at Dillon and attended Ohio Wesleyan University for four years. He graduated from the law department of Washington University at St. Louis in 1892, and that year started the practice of law in Dillon. In 1895 he was appointed city attorney of Dillon and the following year was elected county attorney of Beaverhead county, serving three successive terms. When the eleventh legislative assembly created an additional judgeship in the fifth district, Judge Poindexter was appointed judge. In 1912 he was elected to that position by the largest majority ever given a judicial candidate in the district. Upon the resignation of D. M. Kelly as attorney general of the state, Judge Poindexter was appointed to succeed him. He was the Democratic candidate for the office at the last election.

Judge Poindexter is married and has two children. He is widely known throughout the state, and except for the period embraced in his tenure of office as district judge, he has ever been prominent in the councils of the Democratic party in this state.

WOMAN TO ASSIST PICTURE BRIDES

Following out the suggestion made by the Y. W. C. A., the T. K. K. has decided to employ a traveler's aid secretary on its line of steamers to assist the picture brides coming to America and instruct the Japanese girls in American customs, morals, cooking and various other phases of life in this country.

This innovation will be inaugurated when the Korea Maru sails from Yokohama on her next voyage. According to local Japanese it is expected that the plan will decrease the number of divorce cases among the Japanese people.

Patterson Opens Notable Exhibit of His Paintings

Of particular interest to Carnival visitors it is to know that Ambrose Patterson, one of the talented painters who has come to Honolulu in recent years, is giving an exhibition at his studio, Lanikaea, between King and Hotel streets, on Alakea street.

Mr. Patterson's splendid Volcano picture in the Hawaii Promotion Committee rooms attracted the attention of many thousands. Yet some critics have said that one of his Carnival paintings of 1916—the Japanese Lantern Parade—is the equal if not the superior of the Volcano scene. He has a large number of oils and watercolors on view and the exhibition promises to be a very interesting one. The display will continue for two weeks.

CHILD GETS SICK CROSS, FEVERISH IF CONSTIPATED

"California Syrup of Figs" Can't Harm Tender Stomach or Bowels

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California" Syrup of Figs, which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."—Adv.

MOANA CESSPOOL PERFUMES BEACH

An excellent argument in favor of more sewer facilities at Waikiki was presented Sunday morning when the cesspool of the Moana Hotel broke, releasing considerable filth into the stream between the hotel and the Outfitter Canoe Club grounds.

At 10:30 Sunday morning a gang of Japanese was at work shoveling sand into the hole to close it up and get rid of the stench, which at that time was so strong that the only way not to smell it would have been to pin a clothespin over one's nose. No sewage was seen flowing out of the cesspool break at that time, although before that pour a good deal is believed to have flowed down the stream into the water of "the beach at Waikiki."

The Star-Bulletin made five attempts this morning to locate some official of the Moana who could give the hotel's side of the story, but up to noon no one had been found who knew anything about the break.

Increase in the price for all sizes of stamped envelopes, effective February 1, was announced by the post office department.

EXPECT VISIT FROM GREGORY

Attorney General Thomas Watt Gregory's visit to Hawaii this spring with the congressional party, unless international conditions become too tense, is practically assured, although definite word from the prominent Texas lawyer to this effect has not yet been received here.

Assistant United States District Attorney S. B. Kemp; the United States district attorney, S. C. Huber; Judge H. W. Vaughan of the federal court, all of whom know the attorney general personally, and several others in Honolulu who are acquainted with him, have written urging the visit, but sufficient time has not yet elapsed for an answer to their invitations to return.

The Washington official had formerly informed friends here that he was contemplating a visit to Hawaii with his family, partially on business and partially for pleasure and recreation, and it was immediately suggested that the legislature issue an invitation to him to come with the congressional party and this will probably be done, although Attorney Kemp says the legal representative of the cabinet can travel at the expense of the national government if he cares to do so.

"Those of us who used to try cases against the attorney general when he was practicing in Austin, Tex., would especially like to see him here," said Attorney Kemp this morning, "but all Hawaii would benefit by his coming. In his official capacity he would be personally acquainted with the legal fraternity here and with an eye to recommendations he makes from time to time to the president for appointment to the bench."

Collector of Customs Malcolm A. Franklin while in Washington, D. C., recently was informed by the attorney general that he expected to make a trip here soon.
